

Vigyan Samachar: MoES News

21/04/2020

SAGAR-2020 National workshop postponed

National Workshop on Achievements of MoES Research Vessels (SAGAR-2020) scheduled during 16-17 April 2020 at National Centre for Polar and Ocean Research (NCPOR) Goa, Ministry of Earth Science, Government of India, has been postponed until further notice due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The national workshop aims to bring together eminent researchers working in various fields of oceanography, atmospheric science, geology, deep-sea minerals, fisheries, technology development, etc.

In general, the workshop not only chronicle/review scientific and technological achievements but also discusses emerging, interdisciplinary scientific and technical matters for better understanding, leveraging and protection of the oceans better and exchange of research ideas, findings and experiences on a common platform.

Key Points

- All registrations done so far shall remain valid and all abstracts submitted so far will be considered for scheduling the sessions.
- Online registration and abstract submission shall remain open until further notice.

Dr. Mohammad Faiyaz Anwar
Project Scientist, Vigyan Prasar