Cruise Proposals for ORV Sagar Kanya 2021-22: Last date of application - 5th January 2021

New Delhi, 28 December 2020 (Vigyan Samachar)

National Center for Polar and Ocean Research (NCPOR), Goa, an autonomous R&D institute under the Ministry of Earth Sciences (MoES) is requesting proposal for ship time requirements onboard ORV Sagar Kanya for MoES projects for the period April 2021 to March 2022.

NCPOR invites research proposals from scientists from organizations/institutions, research laboratories and universities with a sustained interest in cruise development research. Scientific research proposals are invited in the field of Geology/Geophysics, Chemical/Biological Oceanography, Physical Oceanography/Meteorology and Others/General like Kongsberg Dynamic Positioning System, Hull-mounted Hi-Precision Acoustic Positioning System/Transponders, Refrigerators/Deep Freezer etc.

Note:
1) The Chief Scientist of the cruise is requested to arrange for
   a. Ministry of Home Affairs clearance for all the foreign participants.
   b. Customs clearance for scientific materials & Immigration clearance through their agent or NIOT/NCPOR/CMLRE agent.
c. All the requisite scientific equipments along with consumables shall be brought by the team.

d. All the participants shall have medical certificates from the DG approved doctor.

e. All the participants shall undergo STCW course as per the latest regulations.

f. Insurance for all the scientific equipment and seaman shall be taken by scientist group.

All the participants shall have yellow fever vaccination during the foreign port call.

VS/MoES/MFA/28.12.2020